

American Psychiatric Association Foundation Corporate Advisory Council Acceptance Form

To accept invitation to participate in the American Psychiatric Association Foundation (APAF) Corporate Advisory Council (CAC), sign the appropriate place and return this form along with payment of the required contribution amount to:

Development Director, APAF, 800 Maine Ave SW, Suite 900, Washington DC 20024, Email:
KHall@psych.org

In accepting the invitation to participate in the APAF CAC, the corporation (Company) understands that it will receive no remuneration for its participation and no reimbursement for any expenses incurred. CAC members are not entitled to any of the compensation or benefits offered by APAF to its employees.

APAF is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization that administers programs and initiatives aimed at building a mentally healthy nation for all. The CAC is comprised of corporations who are interested doing work in the mental health space that contributes to the APAF's mission. The CAC meets twice per year at the offices of the APAF to exchange updates about the important work being done on issues of mental health and to encourage corporate support and participation in public education and research initiatives undertaken by APAF. Company understands that the work of the CAC must reflect and work towards the aims of the APAF.

The benefits available to CAC members, differentiated by level of membership, are listed on the Exhibit attached to this form. One such benefit is the ability to interact with and exchange ideas with leadership of the American Psychiatric Association (APA). APAF and APA believe it is beneficial to the mission of APAF for all involved in mental health care to have a well-rounded view of the field and that such interaction contributes to that goal. Company understands that APAF's and APA's position on issues, including those which affect the welfare of patients with mental illness, will at all times be independent. Company's participation in APAF's CAC will not influence or be a relevant factor in the APAF's or APA's decision-making processes. CAC members shall not direct or administer APAF or APA activities in any manner and Company does not have any authority to bind or commit APAF or APA.

Company represents and warrants that it understands and will comply with the APAF's Statement of Ethical Principles, which is attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference. APAF's Statement of Ethical Principles is also available at: <https://apafdn.org/legal/statement-of-ethical-principles>. Company represents and warrants that it will comply with the Antitrust Avoidance Policy of APAF, which is attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference. The APAF's Antitrust Avoidance Policy is also available at: <https://apafdn.org/legal/antitrust-avoidance-policy>.

Company hereby grants permission and license for its logo to be used by APAF to provide recognition of Company's participation in the CAC. While participating in the APAF CAC, if Company obtains any information which the APAF may consider confidential, it shall maintain the confidentiality of all of the confidential and proprietary information belonging to APAF and shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that no use by it or by any third party is made of the such information without the APAF's written consent. All information shall remain the property of APAF.

By signing below and paying the required contribution, Company hereby accepts the invitation to participate in the Corporate Advisory Council of the American Psychiatric Association Foundation.

Accepted by:

Corporation Name

Signature of Corporation Representative

Date

Printed Name

Title